COURAGE FOR CALLING

Travis Eades | Living Courageously | September 5-6, 2020

When you give your life to Jesus, your life begins to look like his.

And now, compelled by the Spirit, I am going to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there. I only know that in every city the Holy Spirit warns me that prison and hardships are facing me. However, I consider my life worth nothing to me; my only aim is to finish the race and complete the task the Lord Jesus has given me—the task of testifying to the good news of God’s grace.
(Acts20:22-24 NIV)

I’m sending you off to open the eyes of the outsiders so they can see the difference between dark and light, and choose light, see the difference between Satan and God, and choose God. I’m sending you off to present my offer of sins forgiven, and a place in the family, inviting them into the company of those who begin real living by believing in me. (Acts 26:17-18 MSG)

Declaration:

I am called to courage.

The Holy Spirit makes me strong.

My God is with me wherever I go.

I will be brave.

I will not be afraid.

I will live courageously.
